Issue 64

January 2008

December presentation provides many sources of inspiration!

Our December meeting was very enjoyable and thought provoking. Ambrose had put together slides showing artists work and their sources of inspiration. Many of the artists had produced large series of pieces, continuously refining and developing their turnings, while sticking with their initial sources of inspiration. It is, perhaps, this very doggedness that results in their truly unique and styled work. Next months challenge is to turn something that has been inspired by a photo or object. We will bring in both the woodturning and its inspiration, to our AGM on the 10th of January 2008.

See you all there George
